

Tybee Island festival features food & wine

Tybee Island hosts its fourth annual Tybee Wine Festival featuring four fun-filled events with something for everyone who loves great food and wine, April 12-15.

"(The festival) offers the ultimate Tybee experience at the height of spring," said organizer Cindy Meyer. "The setting on the lighthouse grounds provides the perfect backdrop for this spring event. (It) features exceptional food and wine – as well as cool island breezes – and is always a sellout."

For tickets, visit www.tybeewinefestival.com or call (912) 663-109. Combination tickets and member discounts are available. Events are:

SEAFOOD SCHOOL

Thursday, April 12, 11:30 a.m.
Tybee Lite Shrine Club, 1 Meddin Ave.

Having trouble cooking that perfect fish, making a smooth roux or giving your favorite seafood dishes just the right kick of seasoning? Seafood school has the answers, featuring five local seafood stars. A tasting luncheon of the foods demonstrated and a festival gift bag (with a wine glass and copies of all recipes) is included. Tickets are $45.

AN EVENING OF OYSTERS & WINE

Friday, April 13, 6-8 p.m.
Marlin Monroe's, 404 Butler Ave.

Marlin Monroe's serves up an evening of oyster delicacies paired with perfect wines in a colorful, tropical setting. The event includes a live auction and music. Tickets are $40.

GRAND WINE TASTING

Saturday, April 14, 2-5 p.m.
Tybee lighthouse grounds, 30 Meddin Drive

The festival's signature event set on the beautiful grounds of the historic Tybee Island Light Station features tasting and samplings of international wine, craft beers and morsels from favorite eateries on the island and nearby areas. This event includes a silent auction, live music and a limited edition 2012 Tybee Wine Festival glass. Tickets are $50.

CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH

Sunday, April 15, 12:30 p.m.
Tybee Lite Shrine Club, 1 Meddin Ave.

The festival closes with a champagne tasting and brunch. Champagne tasting will begin at 12:30 p.m. with brunch, including a mimosa bar and dessert bar, at 1 p.m. Tickets are $35.
