

A weathered, light blue wooden Adirondack-style chair sits on a wooden boat deck. A white rectangular pillow with a light blue watercolor-style wash is placed on the seat. The pillow features the text "mermaids welcome" in a dark brown, serif font. The chair's paint is chipped and peeling, revealing the natural wood grain. In the background, a wire mesh railing is visible, and beyond that, the dark, rippling water of the sea under a soft, golden light, likely from a low sun.
